

FOREWORD BY SIR JOHN WHITMORE

BRING OUT THEIR BEST

INSPIRING A COACHING CULTURE IN YOUR WORKPLACE

Includes best practice Australian case studies

NATALIE ASHDOWN

About the Book

'Old style management techniques don't work any more. Coaching has been proven to be the best way to bring out the innovation, creativity and accountability in your staff. A coaching culture encourages people at all levels to engage in open and honest conversations that are focused on bringing out the best in themselves and their teams,' says Natalie.

The book features more than thirty case studies from Australia's best corporate coaches and companies including Sunsuper, Super Cheap Auto Group, Centrelink and The Reach Foundation. It is the most up-to-date and relevant workplace study of Australian coaching.

It is a must read book for human resources professionals, senior managers, team leaders and business owners wishing to implement a coaching culture more relevant to the Australian workplace and to keep abreast of trends in the marketplace.

Bring Out Their Best shows how to build a corporate culture where people use coaching skills to engage with each other, build relationships and achieve a high level of performance through the alignment of values, vision and commitment.
